SENATOR LODGE RESTS CHEERFULLY

Boston, July 29. (INS.)—Senator Henry Cabot Lodge today was "resting cheerfully" following an emergency operation for an obstruction of the bladder.

Senator Lodge is being permitted to eat whatever he pleases and to smoke at will.

CROWE THREATENS TO CALL A JURY IN FRANKS CASE

Chicago, July 29. (INS.)—Sackian F. Leopold Jr., on trial for the killing of 14 year old Bobby Franks, wants to take an active instead of passive part in the drama of his own court trial.

He requested his attorneys today to allow him to cross examine two witnesses who have appeared for the state against him, both of which, he asserted, have sworn falsely and out words into his mouth that he never uttered. His lawyers declined to grant his request.

Leopold was taking a course in law at the university of Chicago when he and Richard Louis kidnapped and killed the Franks boy.

By GEORGE R. HOLMES (I. N. S. Staff Correspondent.) Criminal Court, Chicago, July 29. (INS.)—Any and all efforts by the state to employ the boy Leopold and Leob families to present "Dicky" Leob and Nathan Leopold, Jr., to be insane or mentally deficient—thus furnishing the mitigating circumstances for the blooded murder of little Bobby Franks—will be hotly contested by the state, which is seeking to hang them for the crime.

This was re-affirmed in positive language today by State's Attorney Robert E. Crowe as the eighth day of the Leopold-Leob trial got under way in Justice Caverly's court. He was aided by the report of Dr. William H. May, a Boston psychiatrist employed by the defense in which Leopold was said to be "dangerous" and of "paranoia and monomaniac type."

This talk of paranoia and monomania indicated to the prosecution that the defense is going to skate dangerously close to the line of pleading insanity for the youthful defendants, despite its forfeiture of that right when it pleaded the boys guilty.

At the first effort to represent these boys to be insane, or mentally deficient, said Crowe, "I will ask Justice Caverly to call a jury in this case. These fellows are guilty, and the fact they had adolescent brains is no reason why they should not pay the full penalty for their atrocious crime."

The defense counsel merely smiled and went ahead with their plans for introducing, as soon as the state finishes, at least half a dozen men of medical science who will testify to the "queerness" of "Babe" and "Angie" Leopold.

Reading of the confessions was resumed at the outset of the session. In the early statements Leopold and Leob presented a carefully prepared story and they smiled curiously today as they heard their two months' old falsehoods intoned in the courtroom. At times they nudged each other and laughed.

Both defense and prosecution counsel conferred privately with Justice Caverly this morning over whether to introduce into the record a remarkable statement made by Leopold during the grilling that preceded his confession. This dealt with sex matters and is unprintable.

"It's of little moment either way," Justice Caverly told the lawyers, indicating that this will not seriously enter into his consideration of hanging or life imprisonment.

Most of the unprintable matter finally went into the record, but it was read in whispers to the officials' stenographers, however, no portion of it to reach the ears of the scores of women spectators who were present today as usual.

The long stenographic report of Crowe's first examination of Leopold was read into the record verbatim. It showed minute cross examination into the young student's movements.

Persian Legation Says Imbrie Attackers Have All Been Arrested

London, July 29. (INS.)—Practically all persons implicated in the killing of Robert Whitney Imbrie, American vice consul at Teheran, have been arrested, the Persian legation announced today.

The Legation, in a formal statement called forth by Washington's warning note to Persia, said that the police did not take part in the attack, but, on the contrary, sustained casualties attempting to rescue the American. One policeman was killed and several wounded.

The statement pointed out that, due to sectarian feeling in Teheran, the police were ordered to do nothing which would aggravate ill feelings. These orders, it was said, led the police to refrain from firing upon the mobs.

Dorsheimer Brothers To Be Given Hearing At Lancaster Today

Lancaster, Pa., July 29. (INS.)—Upon the testimony of their sister hinges a murder indictment or freedom for Benjamin F. Dorsheimer, of Harrisburg, and Chester A. Dorsheimer, of Atlantic City, brothers, who will be given a hearing late this afternoon on a charge of murdering their parents.

The sister—Mrs. Wm. Peterson, of New York—is said to know all about the death of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Dorsheimer on April 16, 1910. Frank Dorsheimer, who had his brothers arrested, says his sister was told of the deaths over a long distance telephone hours before the bodies were found.

At the time of the deaths 14 years ago it was understood the parents died of gas asphyxiation.

Twelve witnesses, including other members of the Dorsheimer family, have been summoned to testify in the alleged parricide case. In addition Frank will submit correspondence he says will prove damaging to the defense.

Defense counsel refused to discuss the case, but the brothers reiterated their charge that Frank is a religious fanatic and has always been a "little queer."

U. S. Court Decides Klan Raider Of Herrin Must Stand Trial At Marion

East St. Louis, Ill., July 29. (INS.)—United States Judge Walter C. Lindley today remanded 21 of the famous 23 Williamson county cases growing out of the February 8th riots, back to the Williamson county court for trial.

The ruling was a defeat for Glenn Young, paid K. K. K. raider who was defendant in nineteen of the cases and who will now go to trial at Herrin or Marion.

Andrew Frendburg and Mr. Olson, of Grass Flat were attending to business here yesterday.

Irish Envoy

Prof Timothy A. Smiddy of Cork is practically certain to be the Irish Free State's first minister to the United States. His appointment is expected to be confirmed within a few days. The professor has been the Free State's agent in Washington for some time.

WOUNDED BY BANDITS ANNIE IS EXPECTED TO PULL THROUGH

Chicago, July 29. (INS.)—Annie has been located, and though lying today sorely wounded at Dr. Tinkham's Hospital, may recover. Her great courage and loyal heart are expected to bring her through. She was found on a prairie where she had been thrown, weak from loss of blood, from a gaping bullet wound in her side, by the three bandits whom the drove oc when they attempted to rob her master, Joseph Pick, proprietor of the Grand hotel. Officials of the Insurance Company in which she was insured for $1,000, have ordered the best dog experts in Cook county to attend her. Pick says that's "nonsense, for he would see to that."

FARM BLOC CHIEF OUT STRONG FOR MR. COOLIDGE

Sen. Capper Says Great Need of Nation Is Hard Boiled Economizer and That Is Coolidge.

PRAISES PRESIDENT

Washington, July 26.—Convincing evidence of President Coolidge's increasing strength in the agricultural West was furnished today when Senator Arthur Capper, of Kansas, leader of the Senate farm bloc, made public an editorial appearing over his own signature in his weekly, strongly endorsing Mr. Coolidge for re-election.

"The country needs a hard-boiled economizer," is the caption of the editorial, which proceeds to catalog President Coolidge as one who fills the bill. Capper's Weekly circulates widely among the farmers of the West.

Senator Capper is a candidate for re-election this year. He is regarded as one of the most astute politicians in the Senate, and his action today in climbing on the Coolidge bandwagon with such enthusiasm was considered highly significant.

To Reduce, "Stop Expanding" Mr. Capper seems thoroughly convinced that economy is the crying need in Washington. After calling attention to the high cost of Government he continues in his editorial:

"It looks as if the country needed a hard-boiled economizer like President Coolidge, who is getting big results and who will get more. And that he should have Dawes, famous as a budget director, for his running mate, it seems to me, is a stroke of good fortune."

"The war had much to do with the growth of Government bureaus, but not entirely. It is a marked tendency of modern government the world over, 'I believe the way to reduce expenses is to stop expanding government; stop creating new bureaus. We have all the machinery we need to do anything which is necessary. I know this is President Coolidge's idea also. He brought it out forcibly at the recent budget conference."

Sets Example in Thrift "It seems to me that as a Nation we are especially fortunate in having in the White House during this period a leader who believes in and who consistently practices the old-fashioned economy and thrift that was bred into him by a New England ancestry and environment. This is as true of him in national affairs as it is of his private life."

"I happen to know something about that. I happen to know he does not even own a motorcar and never has owned one. I do not mention this to discourage the ownership or use of a car, but am simply telling you this by way of giving you a striking illustration of the type of man he is. Nobody I know is setting such a good example for the American people to follow during a period of our history when the practice of sane economy is so greatly needed."

REPORTED SCHWAB AFTER BIG NICKEL MINES AT SUDBURY

Ottawa, July 29. (INS.)—A report was current in political circles this afternoon that interests headed by Chas. M. Schwab will buy the $21,000,000 properties of the British-American Nickel Company which recently went into liquidation. The company has a plant at Deschenes, Quebec, and mines at Sudbury.

We carry the above news item today for the purpose of making an explanation which if not made might lead some to believe that our local nickel plant is involved. The local plant is owned by the Mond Nickel Company, a much larger concern than the British-American Nickel Company which is capitalized at over twenty million dollars but is now in financial distress. The British-American Company has been a competitor of the Mond Company. Local officials of the Mond Company put little credence in the report that Schwab is dickering for the British-American concern.

Clarence True Wilson Sees In La Follette Only Hope Of The "Wets"

Spirit Lake, Iowa, July 28.—Robert M. LaFollette is "the only wet candidate" for the Presidency this fall Dr. Clarence True Wilson, Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Temperance and Public Morals of the Methodist Episcopal Church, told the camp meeting here yesterday.

"The only party and the only wet candidate running is LaFollette," he said. "He has been continuously wet. He has resorted to the most un-American methods in breaking up Legislatures that have cost his country millions of dollars in wasted time. He has been a czar in his own State politics, eliminating all the men who would not bow down to his 'graven image.'"

Major Baldinger, Aide To President Harding, Is Woodland Guest

The Woodland Booster Club met for the regular dinner and business meeting in the social room of the Woodland U. B. Church with twenty four members and four guests present.

After doing justice to the very fine dinner served by the ladies and completing the business of the Club we had an interesting talk from Mr. Gold Superintendent of the Highway Department, giving us some very valuable information as to traffic and parking regulations and also his cooperation in taking care of the water that has been giving trouble every time it rained along the section by the Woodland Mercantile store and with the co-operation of Mr. A. B. Lansberry, Supervisor for the Township and the property holders at this point will undoubtedly be worked out satisfactory.

Following this we had a very instructive talk by Dr. J. Paul Frantz, of Clearfield. Frantz always has the right things to say at the right time and his address was very much appreciated by the Club.

Following this we had the honor of having with us Major Baldinger, who has not only served his country for many years including the World War but was first aide to our late President Harding and after briefly outlining his services with the Government particularly in the World War and by the way Major Baldinger was the one to lay out and map our present airmail service route. After this he gave us a very interesting talk on the memorable and last trip of our late President Harding. His talk was very interesting and instructive and was very much appreciated by all present. At the close the Club tendered Major Baldinger a hearty vote of thanks and we hope that we may have the pleasure of having Major Baldinger with us some time in the future and our best wishes go with him. We might add here that Major Baldinger did not only have the distinction of being the first aide to the President while in office but as first aide back in Marion when at the age of five he was distributing newspapers for the then Editor Mr. Harding.

They May Lose Compensation

W. H. Lasley of Omaha, former army lieutenant, was too ill to sign his bonus application just before he died July 2. His widow and children therefore may lose the compensation to which they are entitled. The Omaha post of the American Legion and prominent physicians have taken the matter up with the government. From left to right in this picture are Ruth, 6, Wanda, 23 months, Mrs. Lasley, 39, and Josephine, 8.

CHARGE TWO WITH MURDER IN FINDING OF SKELETON

Chattanooga, Tenn., July 29. (INS.)—W. H. Bennett, and his wife, of Rome, Ga., today were served with warrants charging murder in connection with the finding of an acid-eaten skeleton, officers declared, is that of Miss Augusta Hoffman, Bennett's aunt, who was living with him here at the time of her mysterious disappearance nine years ago.

CHILD OF THREE IS FOUND HUNG BY WRISTS TO CEILING

Omaha, Neb., July 29. (INS.)—Margaret Weisner, a three year old girl, tortured nearly to the point of death was found strung up to a chandelier by the wrists in an Omaha rooming house today.

Roomers heard the cries of the little girl and called the police. As a result they arrested Roy Hill, owner of the house where the child was found.

EVERYTHING READY FOR HOP-OFF EARLY THURSDAY MORNING

Brough, Eng., July 29. (INS.)—With the guardian American cruisers and destroyers in position all was in readiness today for the trans-Atlantic hop-off of the United States army round the world flyers tomorrow morning.

It was planned by Lieut. Lowell M. Smith, the flight commander, to float the three planes at 5 o'clock, taking off two hours later.

The American globe girdlers hope to reach Kirkwall, in the Orkney Islands, at noon, where they will rest over night and replenish their supplies. The jump to the American continent will be commenced Thursday morning, weather permitting.

Vessels in the North Atlantic report cold weather but a comparative calm. The forecast is for good weather tomorrow.

Word was received from Rear Admiral Thomas P. Magruder, commander of the light cruiser division, that everything was in readiness for the departure of the airmen tomorrow.

Bungling Safe Blowers Get Only $200.00 After Terrorizing Small Town

Minneapolis, Minn., July 29. (INS.)—A bandit army moving in a fleet of motor cars surrounded Dover, Minn., near St. Charles' early today, blew the safe in the First State Bank, terrorized the town for nearly two hours and made off with only a few hundred dollars in loot when one of their number was injured by a premature blast which failed to open the inner vault.

Two women entered the bank with the safeblowers and are believed to have assisted in the bungled job of cracking the strong box.

DAVIS WANTS SMITH TO BE A CANDIDATE TO BOLSTER TICKET

By DAVID SENTNER (I. N. S. Staff Correspondent.)

Dark Harbor, Isleboro, Me., July 29.—With the political pot beginning to boil back home, John W. Davis, Democratic presidential candidate today planned to cut his vacation short and hasten back to the scene of activity.

Davis will leave here on the 6:25 train Wednesday evening for New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis on Wednesday afternoon will go to Rockland and will be guests of honor at a reception given by the citizens before boarding their train.

Shortly after arriving in New York, the candidate said today, he will confer with Governor Smith of New York and urge him for the second time within a month to run for re-election in the November campaign.

Supporters and advisers of the nominees have told him that Governor Smith's presence on the Democratic state ticket will materially aid the West Virginian's chances to carry New York.

Sunbury, Pa. Guardsman Dies Of Injuries That He Received At Mt. Gretna

Mount Gretna, Pa., July 29. (INS.)—The first casualty at this year's encampment of the national guard occurred late yesterday, when Leroy Hafer of Sunbury, a member of Troop E, 103rd cavalry regiment, succumbed to injuries sustained when one of two horses he was riding in a "Roman race" stumbled and fell, throwing him to the ground.

A fractured skull and concussion of the brain resulted from the fall and Hafer was rushed to a hospital at Lebanon, where he was operated upon by Maj. Chas. S. Miller, of Philadelphia, regimental surgeon. His mother and brother were at his bedside when the end came.

Two new contingents—103rd engineers and 55th infantry—arrived at camp yesterday and devoted their first day in camp to an elementary drill.

Announcement of the results of the 104th regimental rifle contests made today showed that first honors went to Troop F, of Punxsutawney, commanded by Captain Walter E. Morris.

In the brigade match, the 104th cavalry defeated the 103rd cavalry 1,233 points to 1,220.

NATIONALLY KNOWN ENGINEER DIES

Chicago, July 29. (INS.)—John F. Dunlap, of Hastings on Hudson, N. Y., nationally known engineer and secretary of the American Society of Engineers, with headquarters in New York City and Chicago, died today of injuries he received in a train wreck on June 30, on the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad at Buda, Ill.

NEGRO TAKEN FROM TRAIN AT MUNSON BELIEVED INNOCENT

Shortly before noon today Chief of Police Daniel Bank, of Phillipsburg, stated he now or was one of any kind had been received from the Clinton county authorities regarding the colored man taken off a New York Central train at Munson and locked up at Phillipsburg in accordance with order, wire to different towns in this section, from Lock Haven.

It was expected officers would reach here Saturday. But they did not come, nor did Chief Bank receive any explanatory message, though telephone calls to release the man were supposed to have been made Sunday day, according to the Lock Haven Express of Saturday evening. The article in the Express is headed "Bought Negro Girl," and probably explains the lack of interest. The article says:

The investigation made to the high elements of death in the woman's narrative of being a slave, although there is some evidence to substantiate this contention, such as the badly torn condition of her clothing, and a bruise on her nose.

Sheffield Haines, Officer McIntock and Detective W. H. Myers, who deplored the woman's condition, and closely questioned the woman, but as to details of the alleged assault. While she still insists she was attacked, she is unable to give a description of the negro, saying she approached her from behind and that when she did confront him she was too excited and frightened to notice how he was attired or to describe his form or features.

Had Previous Neighbors "Dr. M. D. Campbell, who is attending Miss Womelsdorf, says she is recovering from her wrought up condition, although he has advised that she remain in bed a few days. The physician declined to say whether, in his opinion, a criminal assault had been committed, but it is inferred from expressions of officials and some of the residents of Sugar Valley that the woman had been seized with a spasm and later lured under the hallucination that she had been attacked by a negro. How her clothing became so badly torn cannot be explained unless she could have done the tearing with her hands while passing through the paroxysms of the spasm. It is said she had such an attack some years ago.

No Colored Men Seen. "Another circumstance to give credence to the hallucination theory is the fact that there are no colored people in or near Logantown, and not a citizen of the valley could be found who saw a colored man Friday. A report was circulated that four colored men had been seen driving through Sugar Valley Thursday evening in a Ford car, but when the report was investigated it was found to be untrue."

ACCIDENTAL SHOT WHILE HUNTING FOR GROUNDHOG FATAL

Punxsutawney, July 28.—From a bullet wound accidentally inflicted, Friday, Harry V. Kuntz, of Yatesboro, died at 2 o'clock this morning in the Adrian hospital.

Kuntz and William Jones, also of Yatesboro, were hunting for groundhogs Friday afternoon in East Marion township, Indiana county. They had holed a groundhog and Kuntz reached in the hole to drag the woodchuck out. Jones prepared to shoot the animal as soon as Kuntz pulled it forth but was advised by Kuntz to put his gun away. As he returned the gun, a 44-calibre army style Colt, to its holster it was accidentally discharged. The bullet struck Kuntz above the left groin and passed through his body, puncturing his stomach and liver. He was taken to the Adrian hospital, where he died this morning.

The deceased was the son of the late Amos Kuntz and Maria Kuntz, now living at Marion Center. He was 31 years of age and leaves his widow and four children, Freda, Alvin, Darrell, and Melvin. He also leaves the following brothers and sisters: Glenn Ralph, Byron, Lora, Earl, Paul, Catharine, Della, Mrs. Clair Minister, Mr. Robert Good and Grace.

The body was taken to Yatesboro and funeral services will be held at a Richmond Wednesday afternoon.

Edith Shaw, Joyce Miller, Mario Shaw, and Pauline Fleck are spending the week at Shaw's farm in Goshen. Misses Alecia Undercoffer and Sar Summers are visitors in Lumber City for a couple days.

Philadelphia—The York street Police station served as a hotel for a troop of boy scouts from Louisville, Ky., last night after the truck in which they had been traveling and sleeping, broke down. The "Hotel accommodations" were offered by Sup. Wm. B. Mills.

Philadelphia—An investigation is under way to determine the cause of the crash Sunday between an automobile and train at Willow Grove in which five were killed. Negligence on the part of the driver, Julius Stein, has been held responsible by Chas. Siegrist, Montgomery county registrar, one of the investigators.

New Castle—The New Castle Water Company has asked the Public Service Commission to raise the local water rates to take effect Sept. 1. The new schedule filed by the local water company increase the minimum rate $3.75, lower the maximum amount allowed the consumer will be $250 gallons instead of 4,500 gallons. It was at the old rate of $5.25.

Madisonville—Anna Dudzik, 16, of Pittsburg, who is suffering from a fractured skull when she was kicked by a horse at Conneaut Lake Park Saturday may recover according to physicians who are attending her here.

Chapin—Farmers and fruit growers are trying today to rid this section of a small yellow bug, resembling the common lightning bug which are stripping the cherry trees of their leaves and are fatal to small chicks and turkeys which have eaten them. The bug sucks all the juice out of the cherry leaf, making it look like a sieve.

Franklin—Auto theft epidemic has been raging here for this week and police today advised all drivers to lock their machines or place them in a garage. Four automobiles have been stolen in the last two days, two of them in broad daylight.

Scranton—Frank Thomas, 26, of Hazleton is nursing a wounded leg in jail here after he attempted to escape after the automobile he was driving crashed into another machine. Thomas is charged with violating the automobile law.

Plan Bond Transfers Through Bank, Using Checks As A Medium

By MUNROE ROBERTS
L. N. S. Staff Correspondent

New York, July 29.—To facilitate delivery of bonds bought and sold between large investment houses here, bankers are considering formation of an institution similar in function to the stock clearing corporation and which, for want of a better name is temporarily called the Mutuality Security bank.

The bank, which was designed by Donald Durant of Lee Higginson account, will contain facilities for safe guarding and delivering valuable money transactions either with its own stockholders or the public. It checks, it is thought, could also be used as collateral for loans at the bonds as are being dealt in, and would need no capital outside of enough to furnish plant facilities, etc. The medium of exchange would be checks, these calling not for cash, but for the transfer of bonds from one broker to another.

Thus if a broker wishes to sell $100,000 bonds to another the buyer would draw a "check" on the new bank for that amount, specifying the bonds. The broker would deposit the check to his account, draw a similar check and deliver it to the one to whom he had sold the bonds. The check would then call for delivery of the bonds at the office of the bank.

The debit and credit checks would form the basis of periodic settlements between the brokers, in much the same way as checks are now "cleared" through the clearing houses of the various cities. These own stockholders or the public. It checks, it is thought, could also be used as collateral for loans at the Commercial banks. The direct benefit of the new mechanism would be in providing a simple and safe method for the delivery of valuable negotiable securities, and eliminating the risk of loss through the theft and robbery.

A motor oil that won't break down

HEAT resistance! It is the most important quality a motor oil must have. For heat resistance means body-holding capacity. And upon its "body" depends a motor oil's effectiveness in sealing pistons and keeping the motor full-powered; in preventing scoring or wearing away of cylinder walls; in maintaining a separating film between bearing surfaces.

Put this high-heat-resisting Atlantic Motor Oil in your crank-case. It is the finest protection against the searing heat of furnace-hot cylinders and the trip-hammer blows of flying pistons that you can give your motor.

The extraordinary high-heat-resisting qualities of Atlantic Motor Oil are a recent Atlantic development in motor oil refining.

A million Americans are today buying automobiles on the installment plan, and are proving, incidentally, that the average citizen of the United States is an honest man, for in this vast business involving in the neighborhood of a million dollars in credit yearly bad debts are almost unknown.

America is a nation on wheels, riding to its work and pleasure in 88 per cent of all the motor driven vehicles in the world, and the installment plan is one of the biggest facts that has brought about this condition.

The United States has in operation 251,176 miles of steam railway, enough to circle the globe ten times, according to information gathered and made public by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Of the 48 states, Texas shows the greatest mileage with 10,181. This leading position of Texas is accounted for by the fact that her area is greater than that of any other state in the union.

Illinois has the second greatest mileage—12,046. Chicago is well known as the great railroad center of the world where trunk lines both east and west center. This adds considerably to the total Illinois mileage.

The third greatest mileage—11,448—is found in Pennsylvania. Despite New York City's trunk line, terminal and suburban rail facilities, the state of New York has not as great a total mileage as some of the western states which have a much smaller population than New York state. Minnesota, Iowa and Kansas each has more than 9,000 miles of steam rail lines while New York state's total is 8,384.

The smallest mileage is in Rhode Island, which has only 210 miles. Delaware has 335.

The gubernatorial bug has bitten former Governor John K. Tener once more, it was learned yesterday when the former state executive visited friends at Harrisburg. Tener was at the Capitol only a short time but after he left his friends said he had admitted that he might be a Republican candidate for the nomination at the primaries in 1926.

The Republican party apparently will have as many candidates for Governor in two years as it had two years ago when every Republican who ever held office appeared to be willing to undertake the task of presiding over the Capitol. Candidates already mentioned for the nomination in addition to Tener are Mayor Kendrick, former Judge John J. Patterson, and Harry A. Mackey, all of Philadelphia; former Mayor E. V. Babcock, Pittsburg; Judge George W. Maxey, Scranton; former Judge Albert W. Johnson, Lewisburg; Auditor General Lewis or John S. Fisher, or whoever the Grun dy men decide to run; Ralph Beaver Strassburger, Norristown, wet who caused so much amusement at the Cleveland convention; former Ambassador Cyrus E. Woods, of Greensburg, who will not run, and almost anyone else whose name has ever appeared in print.

Gives Credit to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Hopes Other Women Will Benefit by Her Experience

Skowhegan, Me.—"I was sick most of the time and could not get around to do my work without being all tired out so I would have to lie down. One day when I was reading the paper I saw the Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertisement and saw what it did for other women, so I thought I would try it. I have taken three bottles, and cannot begin to tell you what it has already done for me. I do all my work now and keep up the whole day long without lying down. I have no more headaches nor tired feelings. I hope every woman who takes the Vegetable Compound will get as much benefit out of it as I have."

around the time of the kidnapping. Leopold did not slip badly but once during this extended questioning, the record disclosed. That was when he had denied knowing any of the Franks family or the boy, or ever having called at the home, the inquiry was casually made.

"What is the Franks' telephone number?" "Drexel 8938," he replied instantly.

Before that time, even despite the finding of his glasses near the culvert, Leopold's questioners had not been certain of their ground. But when he made that slip, they went at the questioning with renewed interest. The lawyers took turns at reading the bulky, voluminous bound file of testimony.

Some times their voices rose and at times they addressed the stenographers in whispers—these latter being the times when unprintable parts of Leopold's observations were reached.

Two hours were occupied in reading Leopold's early statements and then at 12 o'clock the reading of Leopold's actual confession to the murder was begun. It was lengthy, too.

Prominent Jacksonville Men Arrested In Giant Whisky Conspiracy

Jacksonville, Fla., July 29. (INS.)

Five of the 36 persons recently indicted in Tampa on charges of being connected with a powerful liquor ring that has been operating between the east and west coasts of Florida and Washington, had been arrested at noon today.

The five arrested were Fred Weaver, agent of the Clyde Steamship line; C. E. Johnson, G. W. Keys, railroad men of Jacksonville; Martin Williams, negro pullman porter and Phillips Gordon, porter at the Union station here.

METHODIST DAY AT LAKESIDE PARK WILL BE THURSDAY, AUGUST 7TH

Methodist Day at Morrisdale this year promises to be one of unusual interest for Methodist folks and friends. It will be held on Thursday, August 7th, in the beautiful Lakeside park.

A great program is planned by the committee in charge. Among the speakers of the day are Prof. W. H. Norcross, Ph. D., of Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pa.; Rev. J. W. Long, D. D., President of Dickinson Seminary, Williamsport; Rev. E. B. Baker, D. D., pastor of Ebenezer M. E. Church Philadelphia; Rev. E. A. Pyles, D. D., superintendent of the Williamsport district, Williamsport.

Music will be furnished by the popular Morrisdale Miners' Band, the Lakeside orchestra and the John Wesley chorus of the Morrisdale Church. The Methodist Church of Morrisdale will serve meals in the park dining room at noon and evening.

The program begins at 10:30 a. m. and continues until after the evening service.

DEFENDS WOMEN DRIVERS

The statement so often recklessly made that women drivers are most dangerous to users of streets and highways is answered very emphatically by the President of the Knickerbocker Automobile Club of New York City. He says he would rather turn his car over to the average woman driver than the average man and feel surer of getting his property back in better condition.

A woman may, he says, be a little more nervous and uncertain but she is less likely to do a freak stunt or take chances that men take. When women are arrested for speeding it is generally under 20 or 30 miles an hour and not for reckless driving. "You don't find women speeding 40 or 50 miles an hour," he adds, "or driving while under the influence of liquor, trying to beat an engine to the crossing, racing other cars, or doing the brainless and hazardous things men drivers are doing every day."

Women drivers, he says, respect the power in their hands and will not let it get beyond their control. Their caution is worth many times the superior strength and mechanical knowledge of men.

After that pronouncement, which must appeal to the experience of everyone who pauses to think it out, there should be less chatter about women drivers being a peril on the road.

THE MOTOR SHEARS

The American Motorist gives some facts not commonly realized regarding the frequent cause of automobile accidents.

Take the case of two cars approaching each other and traveling at 30 or 35 miles an hour, as cars commonly do on good roads in the open country, and sometimes on city streets. The actual speed with which the cars are coming together is the sum of their separate speeds—60 or 70 miles an hour. Any motorist can get a momentary realization of that tremendous speed from the whizz and whiff of wind as he flashes by another car on the road.

Now, suppose a car ahead of you is going at such speed, and another is approaching from the other direction at similar speed, but several hundred feet away. It seems safe enough to pass the car immediately ahead. You try it, and perhaps get caught between the two cars as in a pair of quick-closing shears. If you are lucky, you may pull back just in time to avoid a fatal crash.

What has happened? It is a simple little example in arithmetic. Those cars have been approaching each other at 100 feet a second. If they were 600 feet apart when you started to pass, you must get past in three or four seconds, or get caught. Ordinarily it can't be done. The only safe rule anywhere, says the Motorist, is not to try to pass a car ahead which is going as fast as the law allows on that road or street.

NO ALCOHOLIC BREATH

Henry Ford's latest ukase to his employees deserves, and will receive, wide publicity. It says that any man working for Henry shall be fired if he smells of liquor. The words are so clear that he who flutters may read:

"From now on it will cost a man his job without any more excuse or appeal being considered, to have the odor of beer, wine or liquor on his breath, or to have any of these intoxicants on his person or in his home."

"The Eighteenth Amendment is a part of the fundamental law of this country. It was meant to be enforced. So far as our organization is concerned it is going to be enforced to the letter."

It might be argued that the Eighteenth Amendment did not forbid an alcoholic breath, but Henry Ford's mind is a one-track mind, which seems to quit. A liquor breath, he argues, comes from drinking liquor, and liquor is proscribed by the Constitution and its possession forbidden by the Volstead Act, and

DEATH OF WELL KNOWN WOODLAND RESIDENT

Mrs. Scott Barger, of Woodland, whose serious illness was noted in our columns, died in the Rowles sanitarium on Sunday evening, following an operation for an abscess in the head. She had been ill only a few days.

The deceased, whose maiden name was Miss Ada Crosswell, was aged about 60 years. She is survived by her husband.

Mrs. Barger had long been a member of the Woodland M. E. church. Most of her life was spent in Woodland, where she was well known and held in high esteem. She possessed many pleasing graces that endeared her to a large circle of friends.

The funeral, in charge of her pastor, will take place from her late residence on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Merl Wilkins and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ruffener have returned by motor from a week end visit to Clarion.

so the tell-tale breath is incontrovertible evidence of law-breaking.

Perhaps if Henry were to make a full breast of it, he would say also that such a breath, in these days of poisonous bootleg with its disastrous aftermath of headache, stomach-ache, bad eyes and shaky nerves, is outward proof of incapacity to attend properly to one's job. No booze ever consumed in this country has been so disastrous to industrial efficiency as the liquor sold nowadays.

There is probably economic justification for such drastic action, therefore, aside from whatever moral and legal justification there may be. But the application of the new rule may be difficult. Will Henry have official breath-smellers in every factory and office? And must every employee have his breath smelt every morning, before starting on the job?

In the Courts

Attorney W. I. Swoope entered suit in Prothonotary Ralston's office on behalf of Butler Bros. of New York and against J. C. Philip, of Knox township, for the purpose of collecting $852.48 for merchandise sold to Philip during the past year.

C. Homer Hess, of Philipsburg, began a suit in Prothonotary Ralston's office this morning against the New York Central Railroad Company in which he seeks to collect $1,617.50 for damage to growing timber on a tract of land owned by him in Bradford township, this county. In the statement filed with the notice of suit Mr. Hess alleges that on May 7, 1924, a fire started by sparks from an engine of the railroad company swept his woodland, burning for six hours and causing damage to the amount of $25 per acre.

Ben F. Butler, of Lawrence township, asks to be divorced from his wife, Ruth Orr Butler, whom he married Jan. 7, 1906, and left Dec. 1, 1915. Infidelity is given as his reason for seeking a divorce.

FARMER'S NECK IS BROKEN IN FALL FROM HAY WAGON

Brookville, July 25.—Hope for the recovery of Frank J. Harriott, of Sigel, formerly of Oil City, was given up today as he lay in the Brookville hospital with a broken neck which the man suffered Friday when he fell from a load of hay, alighting on his head and shoulders.

Mr. Harriott was working on his farm, which is located about 11 miles from Brookville, last Friday. He and another man were loading hay into the wagon at the time the accident occurred. Mr. Harriott was on top of the load facing the rear of the wagon when the horses started, jerking the wagon forward and throwing the man off to the ground. In falling, he alighted upon his head and shoulders, breaking his neck.

He was removed to the Brookville hospital still alive, but an examination today showed that the vertebrae at the base of the neck was badly crushed, and possibly severed. It was planned to operate in an attempt to alleviate the pain, but without any hope of saving the man's life.

OLD TIME C. B. C. MAN DIES

Andrew Carlson, one of the C. B. C. pioneers, a former resident of Peale, died at Gazzam last week and was laid to rest from the Fruit Hill church last Sunday. Mr. Carlson went to Peale in 1881 and was identified with the development of that great coal region. Rev. Freedlund, of Lanse, preached the funeral sermon and the services were attended by a large delegation of Grass Flat citizens, friends of the deceased. Mr. Carlson is survived by his wife, three daughters and one son. He was 76 years old.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Spencer, of Weaver street, have as their guests their sister and brother, Mrs. W. D. Walker of Erie, Pa., and F. H. Preble of Denver, Colorado.

RE-OPEN HYDE CITY HOTEL

The big hotel at Hyde City, which had been out of commission for some time, has been rehabilitated, renovated, repaired and refurbished from cellar to attic and placed in the capable hands of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis McCracken, formerly of Madera, and experienced hotel people. A fine big new sign has been erected along the state road at Hyde a few hundred feet beyond the hotel and an effort will be made to make the hotel a stopping place or home for tourists that now travel the Lakes-to-the-Sea Highway in such daily increasing numbers.

In addition to this catering to the tourist and other traveling trade, Mr. and Mrs. McCracken also expect to attract their full share of local or home trade and their enviable reputation as real hotel keepers will no doubt assist greatly in bringing trade to their house.

The place is bright, clean, well lighted, and well ventilated, and is quiet, restful and homelike.

Dinner parties will be entertained on call at Hyde and Mr. and Mrs. McCracken will give their first big dinner on Monday next. The new resistance will be tried spring chicken, spring lamb and all the trimmings that go with it. Mrs. Jack Kerins will assist in preparing the meal and from reservations already made a big crowd will be present to enjoy the same. If you desire reservations, make use of the H. & C. phone.

The hotel will be open for business regularly from here on and should prove a decided asset to Hyde City.

MRS. WARREN PARTRIDGE DIES

Clearfield friends of Mr. and Mrs. Warren E. Partridge, former residents here, will regret very much to learn that Mrs. Partridge died suddenly and unexpectedly at their home in South Orange, New Jersey, this morning.

The sad intelligence was contained in a telegram received from Mr. Partridge by Roland C. Wright. Local friends were informed that Mrs. Partridge had been in poor health for some time, but her condition was not thought to be serious.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Hynd, Mr. and Mrs. James Gray, Lena, Norman and Wilbur Gray and Mr. and Mrs. George Gray arrived home last evening from a two-day visit to relatives in the vicinity of Latrobe.

Progress Editorials for Women

By FLORENCE DAVIES

There is no mother-substitute. Dr. Charles W. Kimmins, who was for years chief education inspector of the London county council, has made this discovery after years of observation. He is now in this country and tells us that no plan has ever been evolved to take the place of mother care. To be sure, that is not exactly news. Some of us had suspected as much all along.

But economic conditions have made it necessary for thousands of women to experiment with the idea that there is a substitute for everyday mother-care for their children.

The argument that a child in school most all day anyhow simply doesn't hold water according to this school which count the most, he says.

The work of the schoolroom may be expert. For it's the hours outside of backed up and made good or almost destroyed by the life of the child outside of the school room, he claims. There is a certain education which must be given in the home and for which there is no substitute.

By actual observation and experiment, Dr. Kimmins finds that children brought up by poorly paid nurses or by hired servants of less intelligence than their mothers cannot compete with those who have been brought up by their mothers, in general all-round scholarship and fitness to meet the demands of the school room.

The school teacher only sows the seeds. The mother, the home life and surroundings, the attitude of the wise mother toward school work, is what makes the seed grow and flower into character and intelligence of the highest order.

It is different with a woman who goes into public life, politics, club work or philanthropic work, says Dr. Kimmins. She is all the better mother for these outside activities, because she is broader, more resourceful and more interesting. But public life of this kind does not demand absence from home at regular hours. It allows a mother to be at home with her children before and after the school hours, but to be absent occasionally during the day when she will not be needed.

With the woman who undertakes an every-day, all day career it is different. Her first thought and energy is bound to be put into her work, if she is to make a success of it. The children get what's left, and what's left isn't enough for children if you would give them the finest possible opportunity for development.

This, at least, is the conclusion of the English specialist who has watched millions of children in the schools of London.

Curwensville's
Own Column

There will be a second meeting held this week by Pike township taxpayers for the purpose of talking over the road and tax question, and the cost of maintaining certain roads in the township. A meeting was held a week or two ago for the same purpose, but nothing was accomplished other than turning the matter over into an attorney's hands for investigation.

Robert Clark, son of Chief G. B. Clark, of Williamsport, is home for a short summer vacation.

A stranger to Curwensville was at the Park Sunday and took a notion to have a bath. He disrobed and went into the water for a short time. When he came out he discovered that some one had visited his wearing apparel and confiscated about $20.

The religious meetings held at the Park, which are to continue for the balance of the week, have been attended by a large number of people from town and also from a distance.

The Friday and Saturday Dollar Day sales proved all that was intended for them. People who had a little spare money took advantage of the low prices. The business men who had entered the combination seem well satisfied with the result.

The Rescue Hook and Ladder Company to the number of 25 went to Gramplan last Friday evening and gave an exhibition for the benefit of Gramplan department, which conducted a carnival for three or four days.

Mrs. Alice Shaffer gave a family luncheon at her home last evening, it being in celebration of her 51st birthday.

Fred Robinson assisted the Gramplan fireman last week by presenting his bag of tricks every evening in his comical and amiable manner.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Hickman and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Post returned from Jefferson county Sunday night after spending several days.

The new Curwensville State Bank will open its doors for public patronage on Friday morning.

Mrs. Dan Irvin has returned home after a two weeks visit in Detroit, Mich.

"Tack" Way, now in business in Punxsutawney, stopped for an hour in Curwensville Sunday, while en route home.

Mrs. Isaac Black reached home on Ridge avenue Sunday night after a two weeks visit with a son in Illinois. The distance on the home stretch covered almost 700 miles by auto.

Better Understanding

Paris, July 23. (INS.)—Secretary of State Charles E. "We come," said Secretary Hughes, "animated by a desire that through unselfish interchange we may deepen the realization of our fellowship in a common cause. We worship with you in an invisible temple of justice whose votaries know no distinction of race, country or condition."

VISITING OLD FRIENDS

Mr. and Mrs. William Finkle, of Buffalo, N. Y., motored to Clearfield on Sunday and spent a part of the day with Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Dukeman of 485 Tenth street. Mr. Finkle is a member of the Washburn Crosby Company, of Buffalo, and both Mr. and Mrs. Finkle are school thums of Mr. and Mrs. Dukeman, who attended the Spring Mills Academy under the supervision of the late Prof. D. M. Wolfe. Ex-Sheriff Harry Dukeman and daughter Meriam, of Bellefonte, were also with the Dukemans over a part of the Sabbath. We are very well pleased to be able to state that the condition of Mrs. Harry Dukeman, who is confined to the Clearfield hospital for medical and surgical treatment, has been most wonderfully improved since her removal from Bellefonte to the Clearfield hospital.

Defies Age by Using
Ordinary Buttermilk to
Beautify Complexion

This Pretty Girl Tells Druggists Not To Take Anyone's Money Unless This Delightful New Vanishing Cream Shows a Decided Improvement.

Buttermilk Cream creates beauty almost like magic. The most wonderful thing about it is the fact that whilst it turns the dulkiest, most lifeless complexion to radiant beauty, it makes red or rough hands or arms snowy white, yet there is not the slightest sign of its use after application. It actually vanishes from sight and the most heated atmosphere will not produce the least shininess or greasiness of the skin. No matter whether you are troubled with a poor complexion, wrinkles, puffiness around the eyes, freckles, crows feet or lines around the mouth, ugly finger nails, or just a simple roughness of the face hands or arms caused by wind or sun you will find that any or all of these troubles will quickly disappear with the use of Howard's Buttermilk Cream.

Even if wealth is a burden, lack of it is more so.

Progress seems to consist of finding new things to worry about.

It once took nine tailors to make a gentleman, but now it takes nine months to pay the tailor's bill.

A red nose is no longer the sign of drink. He may have a girl who does too much rouge.

There's nothing new under the sun, but a lot of strange things are happening under the moon.

The peanut crop is good, so maybe we won't have to shell out so much for them.

A June bride tells us she stays broke because her husband gets up first.

If most people were as bad as you think, they would be much worse than they are.

The only way to exist without working is to be an automatic cigar lighter.

Many movie actors can't afford a new divorce suit this summer.

Now the politicians will see if it all comes out in the whitewash.

When money talks it counts. A small boy tells us he can't see why they call it heaven when the floor, "dance hall" is correct.

Sometimes a man has so much to his credit he can't pay.

Nobody knows why wives seem to have more relatives than husbands.

Why It Will Pay You To Trade In Clearfield

The Shoe Market

H. J. FLEGAL & SONS

Thirty years ago this store was founded by H. J. Flegal. After his death the business has been carried on by his three sons, Horace, Walter and John.

Selling under a code of ethics as high and solid as the eternal hills, we guarantee your confidence.

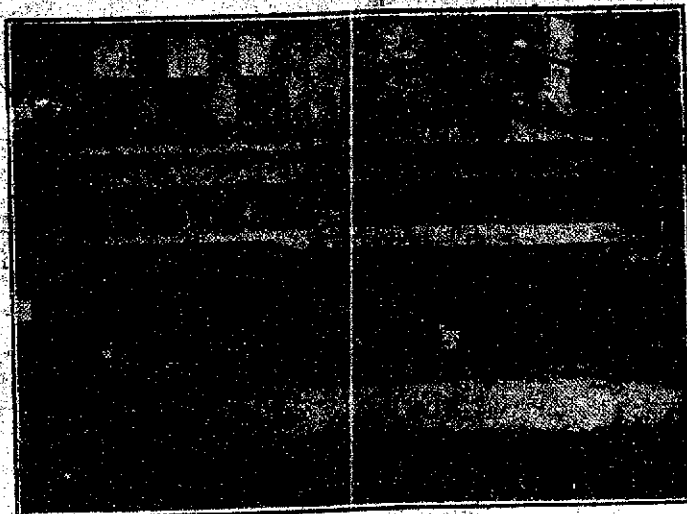

Thirty years under this code has produced for us the generous GOOD WILL that we enjoy.

This is the home of Hart Schaffner & Marx, Society Brand and Clothcraft Clothes.

A live, progressive and up-to-the-minute country town is God's finest creation. God refused to have anything to do with the making of big cities. Such a work he left to dirt-loving, smoke-loving, noise-loving, crime-loving, graft-loving, excitement-loving man; not man living in the image of God (such as is found in small country towns) but superficial, money-mad, harried, nervous, dyspeptic man who is born a chronic grouch and who dies the death of the embittered. God refused to have anything to do with the making of big cities because he knew in advance of the founders what perverters of happiness, what desecrators of homes they would prove to be, and we all know that God puts his trademark on only the good, the worthy and the idealistic. God made the country and the small country towns because he knew that there would congregate the type of man and women in whom would be found the embodiment of all that is really worth while in life. God wished that there should be a Paradise on earth—so he made small country towns, and in these small towns he saw to it that the finest citizens of the nation were born and reared.

He saw to it that living conditions in small towns were made ideal. He saw to it that only home-loving, community-loving, and characterful men, women and children should populate such places. He saw to it that these people should possess those qualities that go to make life worth living; such qualities as cheerfulness, honesty, sincerity, generosity and human kindness. He saw to it that the dollar, important though it is, was made secondary to the great triumvirate of right, justice and fairness. He knew that the people that he would cause to live in small country towns would have a keen sense of their duties toward their home town, its institutions, both social and business. If God had had His way, He would have fashioned many more small towns than he did, but pushing, grasping, struggling, selfish man carved out wicked cities where true happiness is unknown.

Why is it that the great majority of our men famous in letters, business, statesmanship and philanthropy come from the small country towns. Why is it that every movement involving the national welfare originates in the minds of small-town mental giants? Why is it that health, happiness and prosperity abound in the great majority of small towns? Because—because life in a small town, from the moment one is born is conducive to bringing about these ends. It is simply a matter of cause and effect.

Small towns have been the cradles of human liberty. In them have been given birth men whose influence have shaped the paths of humanity and religion. Within them have been born the men and women who later went out into the struggling, seething world and by pen, sword, tongue and gun changed the entire course of history. The cream of the nation's greatest men have always been found and always will be found in small country towns.

Small-town merchants embody all that is ideal. They place the success, happiness and prosperity of their customers above the almighty dollar. They would rather close shop than sell a poor product at a low profit; they would rather die in shame than short-weight or short-change a customer. Small-town merchants are interested in the town's growth and welfare. They believe that it pays them in personal happiness as well as in dollars to be liberal with credit, generous in contributing to the maintenance of the town's institutions such as schools, churches, play-grounds, recreational centers, parks etc. They have caught the spirit of the Maker and have embodied in themselves all that is right and worthy.

CROWE THREATENS TO CALL A JURY IN FRANKS CASE

Chicago, July 29. (INS.)—Saidan F. Leopold Jr., on trial for the killing of 14 year old Bobby Franks, wants to take an active instead of passive part in the drama of his own court trial. He requested his attorneys today to allow him to cross-examine two witnesses who have appeared for the state against him, both of which, he asserted, have sworn falsely and out words into his mouth that he never uttered. His lawyers declined to grant his request. Leopold was taking a course in law at the university of Chicago when he and Richard Louis kidnapped and killed the Franks boy.

By GEORGE R. HOLMES (I. N. S. Staff Correspondent.) Criminal Court, Chicago, July 29. (INS.)—Any and all efforts by the state to employ the wealthy Leopold and Loeb families to present "Dicky" Loeb and Nathan Leopold, Jr., to be insane or mentally incompetent—thus furnishing the mitigating circumstances for the blooded murder of little Bobby Franks—will be hotly contested by the state, which is seeking to hang them for the crime.

This was re-affirmed in positive language today by State's Attorney Robert E. Crowe as the eighth day of the Leopold-Loeb trial got under way in Justice Caverly's court. He was moved by the report of Dr. William H. Day, a Boston psychiatrist employed by the defense in which Leopold was said to be "dangerous" and of "paranoia and monomaniac type." This talk of paranoia and monomania indicated to the prosecution that the defense is going to skate dangerously close to the line of pleading insanity for the youthful defendants, despite its forfeiture of that right when it pleaded the boys guilty. At the first effort to represent these boys to be insane, or mentally incompetent," said Crowe, "I will ask Justice Caverly to call a jury in this case. These fellows are guilty, and the fact they had adolescent brains is no reason why they should not pay the full penalty for their atrocious crime."

The defense counsel merely smiled and went ahead with their plans for introducing, as soon as the state finishes, at least half a dozen men of medical science who will testify to the "queerness" of "Babe" and "Angie" Leopold.

Reading of the confessions was resumed at the outset of the session. In the early statements Leopold and Loeb presented a carefully prepared story and they smiled curiously today as they heard their two months' old falsehoods intoned in the courtroom. At times they nudged each other and laughed.

Both defense and prosecution counsel conferred privately with Justice Caverly this morning over whether to introduce into the record a remarkable statement made by Leopold during the grilling that preceded his confession. This dealt with sex matters and is unprintable.

"It's of little moment either way," Justice Caverly told the lawyers, indicating that this will not seriously enter into his consideration of hanging or life imprisonment.

Most of the unprintable matter finally went into the record, but it was read in whispers to the officials' stenographers, however, no portion of it to reach the ears of the scores of women spectators who were present today as usual.

The long stenographic report of Crowe's first examination of Leopold was read into the record verbatim. It showed minute cross examination into the young student's movements

Persian Legation Says Imbrie Attackers Have All Been Arrested

London, July 29. (INS.)—Practically all persons implicated in the killing of Robert Whitney Imbrie, American vice consul at Teheran, have been arrested, the Persian legation announced today.

The Legation, in a formal statement called forth by Washington's warning note to Persia, said that the police did not take part in the attack, but, on the contrary, sustained casualties attempting to rescue the American. One policeman was killed and several wounded.

The statement pointed out that, due to sectarian feeling in Teheran, the police were ordered to do nothing which would aggravate ill feelings. These orders, it was said, led the police to refrain from firing upon the mobs.

WOUNDED BY BANDITS ANNIE IS EXPECTED TO PULL THROUGH

Chicago, July 29. (INS.)—Annie has been located, and though lying today sorely wounded at Dr. Tinkham's Hospital, may recover. Her great courage and loyal heart are expected to bring her through. She was found on a prairie where she had been thrown, weak from loss of blood, from a gaping bullet wound in her side, by the three bandits whom the drove oc when they attempted to rob her master, Joseph Pick, proprietor of the Grand hotel. Officials of the Insurance Company in which she was insured for $1,000, have ordered the best dog experts in Cook county to attend her. Pick says that's "nonsense, for he would see to that."

REPORTED SCHWAB AFTER BIG NICKEL MINES AT SUDBURY

Ottawa, July 29. (INS.)—A report was current in political circles this afternoon that interests headed by Chas. M. Schwab will buy the $21,000,000 properties of the British-American Nickel Company which recently went into liquidation. The company has a plant at Deschenes, Quebec, and mines at Sudbury.

We carry the above news item today for the purpose of making an explanation which if not made might lead some to believe that our local nickel plant is involved. The local plant is owned by the Mond Nickel Company, a much larger concern than the British-American Nickel Company which is capitalized at over twenty million dollars but is now in financial distress. The British-American Company has been a competitor of the Mond Company. Local officials of the Mond Company put little credence in the report that Schwab is dickering for the British-American concern.

They May Lose Compensation

W. H. Lasley of Omaha, former army lieutenant, was too ill to sign his bonus application just before he died July 2. His widow and children therefore may lose the compensation to which they are entitled. The Omaha post of the American Legion and prominent physicians have taken the matter up with the government. From left to right in this picture are Ruth G. Wanda, 23 months, Mrs. Lasley, 39 months, Bertha, 7, and Josephine, 8.

NEGRO TAKEN FROM TRAIN AT MUNSON BELIEVED INNOCENT

Shortly before noon today Chief of Police Daniel Bank, of Phillipsburg, stated he now has some evidence in county authorities regarding the colored man taken off a New York Central train at Munson and locked up at Phillipsburg in accordance with order, wire to different towns in this section, from Lock Haven.

It was expected officers would reach here Saturday. But they did not come, nor did Chief Bank receive any explanatory message, though telephone calls to release the man were supposed to have been made Sunday day, according to the Lock Haven Express of Saturday evening. The article in the Express is headed "Bought Negro Pressed Attack Was Made on I. N. S. town Girl," and probably explains the lack of interest. The article says the investigation made by the high elements of death in the town was a narrative of being a woman although there is some evidence to substantiate this contention, such as the badly torn condition of her clothing, and a bruise on her nose.

(Cannot Describe Man) "Sheriff Hanna, Officer McIntock and Detective W. H. Myers, who dep. uties visited the woman at home and closely questioned the woman, but as to details of the alleged assault. While she still insists she was attacked, she is unable to give a description of the negro, saying she approached her from behind and that when she did confront him she was too excited and frightened to notice how he was attired or to describe his form or features."

Had Previous Neighbors "Dr. M. D. Campbell, who is attending Miss Womelsdorf, says she is recovering from her wound up condition, although he has advised that she remain in bed a few days. The physician declined to say whether, in his opinion, a criminal assault had been committed, but it is inferred from expressions of officials and some of the residents of Sugar Valley that the woman had been seized with a spasm and later lured under the hallucination that she had been attacked by a negro. How her clothing became so badly torn cannot be explained unless she could have done the tearing with her hands while passing through the paroxysms of the spasm. It is said she had such an attack some years ago.

No Colored Men Seen. "Another circumstance to give credence to the hallucination theory is the fact that there are no colored people in or near Logantown, and not a citizen of the valley could be found who saw a colored man Friday. A report was circulated that four colored men had been seen driving through Sugar Valley Thursday evening in a Ford car, but when the report was investigated it was found to be untrue."

ACCIDENTAL SHOT WHILE HUNTING FOR GROUNDHOG FATAL

Punxsutawney, July 28.—From a bullet wound accidentally inflicted, Friday, Harry V. Kuntz, of Yatesboro, died at 2 o'clock this morning in the Adrian hospital.

Kuntz and William Jones, also of Yatesboro, were hunting for groundhogs Friday afternoon in East Marion township, Indiana county. They had holed a groundhog and Kuntz reached in the hole to drag the woodchuck out. Jones prepared to shoot the animal as soon as Kuntz pulled it forth but was advised by Kuntz to put his gun away. As he returned the gun, a 44-calibre army style Colt, to its holster it was accidentally discharged. The bullet struck Kuntz above the left groin and passed through his body, puncturing his stomach and liver. He was taken to the Adrian hospital, where he died this morning.

The deceased was the son of the late Amos Kuntz and Maria Kuntz, now living at Marion Center. He was 31 years of age and leaves his widow and four children, Freda, Alvin, Darrell, and Melvin. He also leaves the following brothers and sisters: Glenn Ralph, Byron, Lora, Earl, Paul, Catharine, Della, Mrs. Clair Minister, Mr. Robert Good and Grace.

The body was taken to Yatesboro and funeral services will be held at Richmond Wednesday afternoon.

Edith Shaw, Joyce Miller, Mario Shaw, and Pauline Fleck are spending the week at Shaw's farm in Goshen. Misses Alecia Undercoffer and Sar Summers are visitors in Lumber City for a couple days.

Dorsheimer Brothers To Be Given Hearing At Lancaster Today

Lancaster, Pa., July 29. (INS.)—Upon the testimony of their sister hinges a murder indictment or freedom for Benjamin F. Dorsheimer, of Harrisburg, and Chester A. Dorsheimer, of Atlantic City, brothers, who will be given a hearing late this afternoon on a charge of murdering their parents.

The sister—Mrs. Wm. Peterson, of New York—is said to know all about the death of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Dorsheimer on April 16, 1910. Frank Dorsheimer, who had his brothers arrested, says his sister was told of the deaths over a long distance telephone hours before the bodies were found.

At the time of the deaths 14 years ago it was understood the parents died of gas asphyxiation.

Twelve witnesses, including other members of the Dorsheimer family, have been summoned to testify in the alleged parricide case. In addition Frank will submit correspondence he says will prove damaging to the defense.

Defense counsel refused to discuss the case, but the brothers reiterated their charge that Frank is a religious fanatic and has always been a "little queer."

U. S. Court Decides Klan Raider Of Herrin Must Stand Trial At Marion

East St. Louis, Ill., July 29. (INS.)—United States Judge Walter C. Lindley today remanded 21 of the famous 23 Williamson county cases growing out of the February 8th riots, back to the Williamson county court for trial.

The ruling was a defeat for Glenn Young, paid K. K. K. raider who was defendant in nineteen of the cases and who will now go to trial at Herrin or Marion.

Andrew Frendburg and Mr. Olson, of Grass Flat were attending to business here yesterday.

FARM BLOC CHIEF OUT STRONG FOR MR. COOLIDGE

Sen. Capper Says Great Need of Nation Is Hard Boiled Economizer and That Is Coolidge.

PRAISES PRESIDENT

Washington, July 26.—Convincing evidence of President Coolidge's increasing strength in the agricultural West was furnished today when Senator Arthur Capper, of Kansas, leader of the Senate farm bloc, made public an editorial appearing over his own signature in his weekly, strongly endorsing Mr. Coolidge for re-election. "The country needs a hard-boiled economizer," is the caption of the editorial, which proceeds to catalog President Coolidge as one who fills the bill. Capper's Weekly circulates widely among the farmers of the West.

Senator Capper is a candidate for re-election this year. He is regarded as one of the most astute politicians in the Senate, and his action today in climbing on the Coolidge bandwagon with such enthusiasm was considered highly significant.

To Reduce, "Stop Expanding" Mr. Capper seems thoroughly convinced that economy is the crying need in Washington. After calling attention to the high cost of Government he continues in his editorial:

"It looks as if the country needed a hard-boiled economizer like President Coolidge, who is getting big results and who will get more. And that he should have Dawes, famous as a budget director, for his running mate, it seems to me, is a stroke of good fortune."

"The war had much to do with the growth of Government bureaus, but not entirely. It is a marked tendency of modern government the world over, 'I believe the way to reduce expenses is to stop expanding government; stop creating new bureaus. We have all the machinery we need to do anything which is necessary. I know this is President Coolidge's idea also. He brought it out forcibly at the recent budget conference."

Sets Example in Thrift

"It seems to me that as a Nation we are especially fortunate in having in the White House during this period a leader who believes in and who consistently practices the old-fashioned economy and thrift that was bred into him by a New England ancestry and environment. This is as true of him in national affairs as it is of his private life."

"I happen to know something about that. I happen to know he does not even own a motorcar and never has owned one. I do not mention this to discourage the ownership or use of a car, but am simply telling you this by way of giving you a striking illustration of the type of man he is. Nobody I know is setting such a good example for the American people to follow during a period of our history when the practice of sane economy is so greatly needed."

Clarence True Wilson Sees In La Follette Only Hope Of The "Wets"

Spirit Lake, Iowa, July 28.—Robert M. LaFollette is "the only wet candidate" for the Presidency this fall Dr. Clarence True Wilson, Corresponding Secretary of the Board of Temperance and Public Morals of the Methodist Episcopal Church, told the camp meeting here yesterday.

"The only party and the only wet candidate running is LaFollette," he said. "He has been continuously wet. He has resorted to the most unAmerican methods in breaking up Legislatures that have cost his country millions of dollars in wasted time. He has been a czar in his own State politics, eliminating all the men who would not bow down to his 'graven image.'"

Major Baldinger, Aide To President Harding, Is Woodland Guest

The Woodland Booster Club met for the regular dinner and business meeting in the social room of the Woodland U. B. Church with twenty four members and four guests present.

After doing justice to the very fine dinner served by the ladies and completing the business of the Club we had an interesting talk from Mr. Gold Superintendent of the Highway Department, giving us some very valuable information as to traffic and parking regulations and also his cooperation in taking care of the water that has been giving trouble every time it rained along the section by the Woodland Mercantile store and with the co-operation of Mr. A. B. Lansberry, Supervisor for the Township and the property holders at this point will undoubtedly be worked out satisfactory.

Following this we had a very instructive talk by Dr. J. Paul Frantz, of Clearfield. Frantz always has the right things to say at the right time and his address was very much appreciated by the Club.

Following this we had the honor of having with us Major Baldinger, who has not only served his country for many years including the World War but was first aide to our late President Harding and after briefly outlining his services with the Government particularly in the World War and by the way Major Baldinger was the one to lay out and map our present airmail service route. After this he gave us a very interesting talk on the memorable and last trip of our late President Harding. His talk was very interesting and instructive and was very much appreciated by all present. At the close the Club tendered Major Baldinger a hearty vote of thanks and we hope that we may have the pleasure of having Major Baldinger with us some time in the future and our best wishes go with him. We might add here that Major Baldinger did not only have the distinction of being the first aide to the President while in office but as first aide back in Marion when at the age of five he was distributing newspapers for the then Editor Mr. Harding.

CHARGE TWO WITH MURDER IN FINDING OF SKELETON

Chattanooga, Tenn., July 29. (INS.)—W. H. Bennett, and his wife, of Rome, Ga., today were served with warrants charging murder in connection with the finding of an acid-eaten skeleton, officers declared, is that of Miss Augusta Hoffman, Bennett's aunt, who was living with him here at the time of her mysterious disappearance nine years ago.

CHILD OF THREE IS FOUND HUNG BY WRISTS TO CEILING

Omaha, Neb., July 29. (INS.)—Margaret Weisner, a three year old girl, tortured nearly to the point of death was found strung up to a chandelier by the wrists in an Omaha rooming house today. Roomers heard the cries of the little girl and called the police. As a result they arrested Roy Hill, owner of the house where the child was found.

EVERYTHING READY FOR HOP-OFF EARLY THURSDAY MORNING

Brough, Eng., July 29. (INS.)—With the guardian American cruisers and destroyers in position all was in readiness today for the trans-Atlantic hop-off of the United States army round the world flyers tomorrow morning.

It was planned by Lieut. Lowell M. Smith, the flight commander, to float the three planes at 5 o'clock, taking off two hours later.

The American globe girdlers hope to reach Kirkwall, in the Orkney Islands, at noon, where they will rest over night and replenish their supplies. The jump to the American continent will be commenced Thursday morning, weather permitting.

Vessels in the North Atlantic report cold weather but a comparative calm. The forecast is for good weather tomorrow.

Word was received from Rear Admiral Thomas P. Magruder, commander of the light cruiser division, that everything was in readiness for the departure of the airmen tomorrow.

Bungling Safe Blowers Get Only $200.00 After Terrorizing Small Town

Minneapolis, Minn., July 29. (INS.)—A bandit army moving in a fleet of motor cars surrounded Dover, Minn., near St. Charles' early today, blew the safe in the First State Bank, terrorized the town for nearly two hours and made off with only a few hundred dollars in loot when one of their number was injured by a premature blast which failed to open the inner vault.

Two women entered the bank with the safeblowers and are believed to have assisted in the bungled job of cracking the strong box.

DAVIS WANTS SMITH TO BE A CANDIDATE TO BOLSTER TICKET

By DAVID SENTNER (I. N. S. Staff Correspondent.) Dark Harbor, Isleboro, Me., July 29.—With the political pot beginning to boil back home, John W. Davis, Democratic presidential candidate today planned to cut his vacation short and hasten back to the scene of activity. Davis will leave here on the 6:25 train Wednesday evening for New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis on Wednesday afternoon will go to Rockland and will be guests of honor at a reception given by the citizens before boarding their train.

Shortly after arriving in New York, the candidate said today, he will confer with Governor Smith of New York and urge him for the second time within a month to run for re-election in the November campaign.

Supporters and advisers of the nominees have told him that Governor Smith's presence on the Democratic state ticket will materially aid the West Virginian's chances to carry New York.

Sunbury, Pa. Guardsman Dies Of Injuries That He Received At Mt. Gretna

Mount Gretna, Pa., July 29. (INS.)—The first casualty at this year's encampment of the national guard occurred late yesterday, when Leroy Hafer of Sunbury, a member of Troop E, 103rd cavalry regiment, succumbed to injuries sustained when one of two horses he was riding in a "Roman race" stumbled and fell, throwing him to the ground.

A fractured skull and concussion of the brain resulted from the fall and Hafer was rushed to a hospital at Lebanon, where he was operated upon by Maj. Chas. S. Miller, of Philadelphia, regimental surgeon. His mother and brother were at his bedside when the end came.

Two new contingents—103rd engineers and 55th infantry—arrived at camp yesterday and devoted their first day in camp to an elementary drill.

Announcement of the results of the 104th regimental rifle contests made today showed that first honors went to Troop F, of Punxsutawney, commanded by Captain Walter E. Morris. In the brigade match, the 104th cavalry defeated the 103rd cavalry 1,233 points to 1,220.

NATIONALLY KNOWN ENGINEER DIES

Chicago, July 29. (INS.)—John F. Dunlap, of Hastings on Hudson, N. Y., nationally known engineer and secretary of the American Society of Engineers, with headquarters in New York City and Chicago, died today of injuries he received in a train wreck on June 30, on the Chicago, Burlington and Quincy railroad at Buda, Ill.

James McDivitt of Grampian was a Clearfield visitor Saturday.

PENNSY-GRAMS

Philadelphia—The York street Police station served as a hotel for a troop of boy scouts from Louisville, Ky., last night after the truck in which they had been traveling and sleeping, broke down. The "Hotel accommodations" were offered by Sup. Wm. B. Mills.

Philadelphia—An investigation is under way to determine the cause of the crash Sunday between an automobile and train at Willow Grove in which five were killed. Negligence on the part of the driver, Julius Stein, has been held responsible by Chas. Siegrist, Montgomery county registrar, one of the investigators.

New Castle—The New Castle Water Company has asked the Public Service Commission to raise the local water rates to take effect Sept. 1. The new schedules filed by the local water company increase the minimum rate $3.75, lower the maximum amount allowed the consumer will be $250 gallons instead of 4,500 gallons. It was at the old rate of $5.25.

Madisonville—Anna Dudzik, 16, of Pittsburg, who is suffering from a fractured skull when she was kicked by a horse at Conneaut Lake Park Saturday may recover according to physicians who are attending her here.

Chapin—Farmers and fruit growers are trying today to rid this section of a small yellow bug, resembling the common lightning bug which are stripping the cherry trees of their leaves and are fatal to small chickens and turkeys which have eaten them. The bug sucks all the juice out of the cherry leaf, making it look like a withered leaf.

Franklin—Auto theft epidemic has been raging here for this week and police today advised all drivers to lock their machines or place them in a garage. Four automobiles have been stolen in the last two days, two of them in broad daylight.

Scranton—Frank Thomas, 26, of Brown town is nursing a wounded leg in jail here after he attempted to escape after the automobile he was driving crashed into another machine. Thomas is charged with violating the automobile law.

New York, July 29.—To facilitate delivery of bonds bought and sold between large investment houses here, bankers are considering formation of an institution similar in function to the stock clearing corporation and which, for want of a better name is temporarily called the Mutual Security Bank.

The bank, which was designed by Donald Durant of Lee Higginson account, will contain facilities for safe guarding and delivering valuable securities, but would have no direct money transactions either with its own stockholders or the public. It checks, it is thought, could also be used as collateral for loans at the bonds as are being dealt in, and would need no capital outside of enough to furnish plant facilities, etc. The medium of exchange would be checks, these calling not for cash, but for the transfer of bonds from one broker to another.

Thus if a broker wishes to sell $100,000 bonds to another the buyer would draw a "check" on the new bank for that amount, specifying the bonds. The broker would deposit the check to his account, draw a similar check and deliver it to the one to whom he had sold the bonds. The check would then call for delivery of the bonds at the office of the bank.

The debit and credit checks would form the basis of periodic settlements between the brokers, in much the same way as checks are now "cleared" through the clearing houses of the various cities. These own stockholders or the public. It checks, it is thought, could also be used as collateral for loans at the Commercial banks.

The direct benefit of the new mechanism would be in providing a simple and safe method for the delivery of valuable negotiable securities, and eliminating the risk of loss through the theft and robbery.

A motor oil that won't break down

HEAT resistance! It is the most important quality a motor oil must have. For heat resistance means body-holding capacity. And upon its "body" depends a motor oil's effectiveness in sealing pistons and keeping the motor full-powered; in preventing scoring or wearing away of cylinder walls; in maintaining a separating film between bearing surfaces.

Put this high-heat-resisting Atlantic Motor Oil in your crank-case. It is the finest protection against the searing heat of furnace-hot cylinders and the trip-hammer blows of flying pistons that you can give your motor.

The extraordinary high-heat-resisting qualities of Atlantic Motor Oil are a recent Atlantic development in motor oil refining.

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

A million Americans are today buying automobiles on the installment plan, and are proving, incidentally, that the average citizen of the United States is an honest man, for in this vast business involving in the neighborhood of a million dollars in credit yearly bad debts are almost unknown.

America is a nation on wheels, riding to its work and pleasure in 88 per cent of all the motor driven vehicles in the world, and the installment plan is one of the biggest facts that has brought about this condition.

The United States has in operation 251,176 miles of steam railway, enough to circle the globe ten times, according to information gathered and made public by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Of the 48 states, Texas shows the greatest mileage with 10,181. This leading position of Texas is accounted for by the fact that her area is greater than that of any other state in the union.

Illinois has the second greatest mileage—12,046. Chicago is well known as the great railroad center of the world where trunk lines both east and west center. This adds considerably to the total Illinois mileage.

The third greatest mileage—11,448—is found in Pennsylvania. Despite New York City's trunk line, terminal and suburban rail facilities, the state of New York has not as great a total mileage as some of the western states which have a much smaller population than New York state. Minnesota, Iowa and Kansas each has more than 9,000 miles of steam rail lines while New York state's total is 8,384.

The smallest mileage is in Rhode Island, which has only 210 miles. Delaware has 335.

The gubernatorial bug has bitten former Governor John K. Tener once more, it was learned yesterday when the former state executive visited friends at Harrisburg. Tener was at the Capitol only a short time but after he left his friends said he had admitted that he might be a Republican candidate for the nomination at the primaries in 1926.

The Republican party apparently will have as many candidates for Governor in two years as it had two years ago when every Republican who ever held office appeared to be willing to undertake the task of presiding over the Capitol. Candidates already mentioned for the nomination in addition to Tener are Mayor Kendrick, former Judge John J. Patterson, and Harry A. Mackey, all of Philadelphia; former Mayor E. V. Babcock, Pittsburg; Judge George W. Maxey, Scranton; former Judge Albert W. Johnson, Lewisburg; Auditor General Lewis or John S. Fisher, or whoever the Grun dy men decide to run; Ralph Beaver Strassburger, Norristown, wet who caused so much amusement at the Cleveland convention; former Ambassador Cyrus E. Woods, of Greensburg, who will not run, and almost anyone else whose name has ever appeared in print.

Gives Credit to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Hopes Other Women Will Benefit by Her Experience

Skowhegan, Me.—"I was sick most of the time and could not get around to do my work without being all tired out so I would have to lie down. One day when I was reading the paper I saw the Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertisement and saw what it did for other women, so I thought I would try it. I have taken three bottles, and cannot begin to tell you what it has already done for me. I do all my work now and keep up the whole day long without lying down. I have no more headaches nor tired feelings. I hope every woman who takes the Vegetable Compound will get as much benefit out of it as I have."

around the time of the kidnapping. Leopold did not slip badly but once during this extended questioning, the record disclosed. That was when he had denied knowing any of the Franks family or the boy, or ever having called at the home, the inquiry was casually made.

"What is the Franks' telephone number?" "Drexel 8938," he replied instantly.

Before that time, even despite the finding of his glasses near the culvert, Leopold's questioners had not been certain of their ground. But when he made that slip, they went at the questioning with renewed interest. The lawyers took turns at reading the bulky, voluminous bound file of testimony.

Some times their voices rose and at times they addressed the stenographers in whispers—these latter being the times when unprintable parts of Leopold's observations were reached.

Two hours were occupied in reading Leopold's early statements and then at 12 o'clock the reading of Leopold's actual confession to the murder was begun. It was lengthy, too.

METHODIST DAY AT LAKESIDE PARK WILL BE THURSDAY, AUGUST 7TH

Methodist Day at Morrisdale this year promises to be one of unusual interest for Methodist folks and friends. It will be held on Thursday, August 7th, in the beautiful Lakeside park.

A great program is planned by the committee in charge. Among the speakers of the day are Prof. W. H. Norcross, Ph. D., of Dickinson College, Carlisle, Pa.; Rev. J. W. Long, D. D., President of Dickinson Seminary, Williamsport; Rev. E. B. Baker, D. D., pastor of Ebenezer M. E. Church Philadelphia; Rev. E. A. Pyles, D. D., superintendent of the Williamsport district, Williamsport.

Music will be furnished by the popular Morrisdale Miners' Band, the Lakeside orchestra and the John Wesley chorus of the Morrisdale Church.

The Methodist Church of Morrisdale will serve meals in the park dining room at noon and evening.

The program begins at 10:30 a. m. and continues until after the evening service.

DEFENDS WOMEN DRIVERS

The statement so often recklessly made that women drivers are most dangerous to users of streets and highways is answered very emphatically by the President of the Knickerbocker Automobile Club of New York City. He says he would rather turn his car over to the average woman driver than the average man and feel surer of getting his property back in better condition.

A woman may, he says, be a little more nervous and uncertain but she is less likely to do a freak stunt or take chances that men take. When women are arrested for speeding it is generally under 20 or 30 miles an hour and not for reckless driving. "You don't find women speeding 40 or 50 miles an hour," he adds, "or driving while under the influence of liquor, trying to beat an engine to the crossing, racing other cars, or doing the brainless and hazardous things men drivers are doing every day."

Women drivers, he says, respect the power in their hands and will not let it get beyond their control. Their caution is worth many times the superior strength and mechanical knowledge of men.

After that pronouncement, which must appeal to the experience of everyone who pauses to think it out, there should be less chatter about women drivers being a peril on the road.

THE MOTOR SHEARS

The American Motorist gives some facts not commonly realized regarding the frequent cause of automobile accidents.

Take the case of two cars approaching each other and traveling at 30 or 35 miles an hour, as cars commonly do on good roads in the open country, and sometimes on city streets. The actual speed with which the cars are coming together is the sum of their separate speeds—60 or 70 miles an hour. Any motorist can get a momentary realization of that tremendous speed from the whizz and whiff of wind as he flashes by another car on the road.

Now, suppose a car ahead of you is going at such speed, and another is approaching from the other direction at similar speed, but several hundred feet away. It seems safe enough to pass the car immediately ahead. You try it, and perhaps get caught between the two cars as in a pair of quick-closing shears. If you are lucky, you may pull back just in time to avoid a fatal crash.

What has happened? It is a simple little example in arithmetic. Those cars have been approaching each other at 100 feet a second. If they were 600 feet apart when you started to pass, you must get past in three or four seconds, or get caught. Ordinarily it can't be done. The only safe rule anywhere, says the Motorist, is not to try to pass a car ahead which is going as fast as the law allows on that road or street.

NO ALCOHOLIC BREATH

Henry Ford's latest ukase to his employees deserves, and will receive, wide publicity. It says that any man working for Henry shall be fired if he smells of liquor. The words are so clear that he who flutters may read:

"From now on it will cost a man his job without any more excuse or appeal being considered, to have the odor of beer, wine or liquor on his breath, or to have any of these intoxicants on his person or in his home."

"The Eighteenth Amendment is a part of the fundamental law of this country. It was meant to be enforced. So far as our organization is concerned it is going to be enforced to the letter."

It might be argued that the Eighteenth Amendment did not forbid an alcoholic breath, but Henry Ford's mind is a one-track mind, which seems to quite. A liquor breath, he argues, comes from drinking liquor, and liquor is proscribed by the Constitution and its possession forbidden by the Volstead Act, and

Mrs. Scott Barger, of Woodland, whose serious illness was noted in our columns, died in the Rowles sanitarium on Sunday evening, following an operation for an abscess in the head. She had been ill only a few days.

The deceased, whose maiden name was Miss Ada Crosswell, was aged about 60 years. She is survived by her husband.

Mrs. Barger had long been a member of the Woodland M. E. church. Most of her life was spent in Woodland, where she was well known and held in high esteem. She possessed many pleasing graces that endeared her to a large circle of friends.

The funeral, in charge of her pastor, will take place from her late residence on Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Merl Wilkins and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ruffener have returned by motor from a week end visit to Clarion.

so the tell-tale breath is incontrovertible evidence of law-breaking.

Perhaps if Henry were to make a full breast of it, he would say also that such a breath, in these days of poisonous bootleg with its disastrous aftermath of headache, stomach-ache, bad eyes and shaky nerves, is outward proof of incapacity to attend properly to one's job. No booze ever consumed in this country has been so disastrous to industrial efficiency as the liquor sold nowadays.

There is probably economic justification for such drastic action, therefore, aside from whatever moral and legal justification there may be. But the application of the new rule may be difficult. Will Henry have official breath-smellers in every factory and office? And must every employee have his breath smelt every morning, before starting on the job?

In the Courts

Attorney W. I. Swoope entered suit in Prothonotary Ralston's office on behalf of Butler Bros. of New York and against J. C. Philip, of Knox township, for the purpose of collecting $852.48 for merchandise sold to Philip during the past year.

C. Homer Hess, of Philipsburg, began a suit in Prothonotary Ralston's office this morning against the New York Central Railroad Company in which he seeks to collect $1,617.50 for damage to growing timber on a tract of land owned by him in Bradford township, this county. In the statement filed with the notice of suit Mr. Hess alleges that on May 7, 1924, a fire started by sparks from an engine of the railroad company swept his woodland, burning for six hours and causing damage to the amount of $25 per acre.

Ben F. Butler, of Lawrence township, asks to be divorced from his wife, Ruth Orr Butler, whom he married Jan. 7, 1906, and left Dec. 1, 1915. Infidelity is given as his reason for seeking a divorce.

FARMER'S NECK IS BROKEN IN FALL FROM HAY WAGON

Brookville, July 25.—Hope for the recovery of Frank J. Harriott, of Sigel, formerly of Oil City, was given up today as he lay in the Brookville hospital with a broken neck which the man suffered Friday when he fell from a load of hay, alighting on his head and shoulders.

Mr. Harriott was working on his farm, which is located about 11 miles from Brookville, last Friday. He and another man were loading hay into the wagon at the time the accident occurred. Mr. Harriott was on top of the load facing the rear of the wagon when the horses started, jerking the wagon forward and throwing the man off to the ground. In falling, he alighted upon his head and shoulders, breaking his neck.

He was removed to the Brookville hospital still alive, but an examination today showed that the vertebrae at the base of the neck was badly crushed, and possibly severed. It was planned to operate in an attempt to alleviate the pain, but without any hope of saving the man's life.

OLD TIME C. B. C. MAN DIES

Andrew Carlson, one of the C. B. C. pioneers, a former resident of Peale, died at Gazzam last week and was laid to rest from the Fruit Hill church last Sunday. Mr. Carlson went to Peale in 1881 and was identified with the development of that great coal region. Rev. Fredlund, of Lanse, preached the funeral sermon and the services were attended by a large delegation of Grass Flat citizens, friends of the deceased. Mr. Carlson is survived by his wife, three daughters and one son. He was 76 years old.

RE-OPEN HYDE CITY HOTEL

The big hotel at Hyde City, which had been out of commission for some time, has been rehabilitated, renovated, repaired and refurbished from cellar to attic and placed in the capable hands of Mr. and Mrs. Ellis McCracken, formerly of Madera, and experienced hotel people. A fine big new sign has been erected along the state road at Hyde a few hundred feet beyond the hotel and an effort will be made to make the hotel a stopping place or home for tourists that now travel the Lakes-to-the-Sea Highway in such daily increasing numbers.

In addition to this catering to the tourist and other traveling trade, Mr. and Mrs. McCracken also expect to attract their full share of local or home trade and their enviable reputation as real hotel keepers will no doubt assist greatly in bringing trade to their house.

The place is bright, clean, well lighted, and well ventilated, and is quiet, restful and homelike.

Dinner parties will be entertained on call at Hyde and Mr. and Mrs. McCracken will give their first big dinner on Sunday next. The new restaurant will be a fine dining room, spring lamb and all the trimmings that go with it. Mrs. Jack Kerins will assist in preparing the meal and from reservations already made a fine crowd will be present to enjoy the same. If you desire reservations, make use of the H. & C. phone.

The hotel will be open for business regularly from here on and should prove a decided asset to Hyde City.

MRS. WARREN PARTRIDGE DIES

Clearfield friends of Mr. and Mrs. Warren E. Partridge, former residents here, will regret very much to learn that Mrs. Partridge died suddenly and unexpectedly at their home in South Orange, New Jersey, this morning.

The sad intelligence was contained in a telegram received from Mr. Partridge by Roland C. Wright. Local friends were informed that Mrs. Partridge had been in poor health for some time, but her condition was not thought to be serious.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Hynd, Mr. and Mrs. James Gray, Lena, Norman and Wilbur Gray and Mr. and Mrs. George Gray arrived home last evening from a two-day visit to relatives in the vicinity of Latrobe.

Progress Editorials for Women

By FLORENCE DAVIES

There is no mother-substitute. Dr. Charles W. Kimmins, who was for years chief education inspector of the London county council, has made this discovery after years of observation. He is now in this country and tells us that no plan has ever been evolved to take the place of mother care. To be sure, that is not exactly news. Some of us had suspected as much all along.

But economic conditions have made it necessary for thousands of women to experiment with the idea that there is a substitute for everyday mother-care for their children.

The argument that a child in school most all day anyhow simply doesn't hold water according to this school which count the most, he says.

The work of the schoolroom may be expert. For it's the hours outside of backed up and made good or almost destroyed by the life of the child outside of the school room, he claims. There is a certain education which must be given in the home and for which there is no substitute.

By actual observation and experiment, Dr. Kimmins finds that children brought up by poorly paid nurses or by hired servants of less intelligence than their mothers cannot compete with those who have been brought up by their mothers, in general all-round scholarship and fitness to meet the demands of the school room.

The school teacher only sows the seeds. The mother, the home life and surroundings, the attitude of the wise mother toward school work, is what makes the seed grow and flower into character and intelligence of the highest order.

It is different with a woman who goes into public life, politics, club work or philanthropic work, says Dr. Kimmins. She is all the better mother for these outside activities, because she is broader, more resourceful and more interesting. But public life of this kind does not demand absence from home at regular hours. It allows a mother to be at home with her children before and after the school hours, but to be absent occasionally during the day when she will not be needed.

With the woman who undertakes an every-day, all day career it is different. Her first thought and energy is bound to be put into her work, if she is to make a success of it. The children get what's left, and what's left isn't enough for children if you would give them the finest possible opportunity for development.

This, at least, is the conclusion of the English specialist who has watched millions of children in the schools of London.

Curwensville's
Own Column

There will be a second meeting held this week by Pike township taxpayers for the purpose of talking over the road and tax question, and the cost of maintaining certain roads in the township. A meeting was held a week or two ago for the same purpose, but nothing was accomplished other than turning the matter over into an attorney's hands for investigation.

Robert Clark, son of Chief G. B. Clark, of Williamsport, is home for a short summer vacation.

A stranger to Curwensville was at the Park Sunday, and took a notion to have a bath. He disrobed and went into the water for a short time. When he came out he discovered that some one had visited his wearing apparel and confiscated about $20.

The religious meetings held at the Park, which are to continue for the balance of the week, have been attended by a large number of people from town and also from a distance.

The Friday and Saturday Dollar Day sales proved all that was intended for them. People who had a little spare money took advantage of the low prices. The business men who had entered the combination seem well satisfied with the result.

The Rescue Hook and Ladder Company to the number of 25 went to Gramplan last Friday evening and gave an exhibition for the benefit of Gramplan department, which conducted a carnival for three or four days.

Mrs. Alice Shaffer gave a family luncheon at her home last evening, it being in celebration of her 51st birthday.

Fred Robinson assisted the Gramplan firemen last week by presenting his bag of tricks every evening in his comical and amiable manner.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Hickman and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Post returned from Jefferson county Sunday night after spending several days.

The new Curwensville State Bank will open its doors for public patronage on Friday morning.

Mrs. Dan Irvin has returned home after a two weeks visit in Detroit, Mich.

"Tack" Way, now in business in Punxsutawney, stopped for an hour in Curwensville Sunday, while en route home.

Mrs. Isaac Black reached home on Ridge avenue Sunday night after a two weeks visit with a son in Illinois. The distance on the home stretch covered almost 700 miles by auto.

GRAMPLAN

L. C. Lanich and son Clarence, prosperous business men of Buffalo, were visiting their sisters, Mrs. M. H. Woodel and Mrs. Frank Cleaver, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Price and son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Lighter and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Price and son motored from Newark, Ohio, stopped with Mrs. M. H. Woodel and Mrs. Cleaver for a few days.

Amadeus Woodel and family motoring from Orlando, Florida, on their way to Warren, Ohio, called on their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Woodel.

INTERESTING TALK ON MEXICO

Miss Lillian Deitzel entertained the Lutheran Young People's Missionary Society last week. Miss Mary Snyder of San Diego, gave a most interesting and instructive talk on her work among the Mexicans. The young people are enthusiastic over Miss Snyder's talk and exhibits of the Mexican handicraft.

Hughes Makes Pretty
Speech At Paris On
Better Understanding

Paris, July 20. (INS.)—Secretary of State Charles E. Hughes, replying today to the address of welcome at the French bar ceremony at the Palace of Justice, made a plea for better understanding between the nations. "We come," said Secretary Hughes, "animated by a desire that through unselfish interchange we may deepen the realization of our fellowship in a common cause. We worship with you in an invisible temple of justice whose votaries know no distinction of race, country or condition."

VISITING OLD FRIENDS

Mr. and Mrs. William Finkle, of Buffalo, N. Y., motored to Clearfield on Sunday and spent a part of the day with Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Dukeman of 485 Tenth street. Mr. Finkle is a member of the Washburn Crosby Company, of Buffalo, and both Mr. and Mrs. Finkle are school thums of Mr. and Mrs. Dukeman, who attended the Spring Mills Academy under the supervision of the late Prof. D. M. Wolfe. Ex-Sheriff Harry Dukeman and daughter Meriam, of Bellefonte, were also with the Dukemans over a part of the Sabbath. We are very well pleased to be able to state that the condition of Mrs. Harry Dukeman, who is confined to the Clearfield hospital for medical and surgical treatment, has been most wonderfully improved since her removal from Bellefonte to the Clearfield hospital.

Misses Ruth Owens and Mildred White, left Sunday morning for a visit of a week or ten days at Mill Creek, Pa.

Defies Age by Using
Ordinary Buttermilk to
Beautify Complexion

This Pretty Girl Tells Druggists Not To Take Anyone's Money Unless This Delightful New Vanishing Cream Shows a Decided Improvement.

Buttermilk Cream creates beauty almost like magic. The most wonderful thing about it is the fact that whilst it turns the dull, most lifeless complexion to radiant beauty, it makes red or rough hands or arms snowy white, yet there is not the slightest sign of its use after application. It actually vanishes from sight and the most heated atmosphere will not produce the least shininess or greasiness of the skin.

No matter whether you are troubled with a poor complexion, wrinkles, puffiness around the eyes, freckles, crows feet or lines around the mouth, ugly finger nails, or just a simple roughness of the face hands or arms caused by wind or sun you will find that any or all of these troubles will quickly disappear with the use of Howard's Buttermilk Cream.

Why It Will Pay You To Trade In Clearfield

The Shoe Market

H. J. FLEGAL & SONS

Thirty years ago this store was founded by H. J. Flegal. After his death the business has been carried on by his three sons, Horace, Walter and John.

Selling under a code of ethics as high and solid as the eternal hills, we guarantee your confidence.

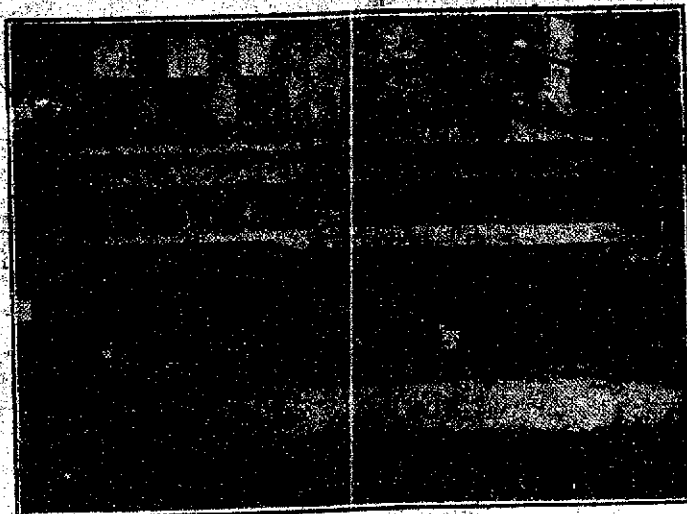

Thirty years under this code has produced for us the generous GOOD WILL that we enjoy.

This is the home of Hart Schaffner & Marx, Society Brand and Clothcraft Clothes.

A live, progressive and up-to-the-minute country town is God's finest creation. God refused to have anything to do with the making of big cities. Such a work he left to dirt-loving, smoke-loving, noise-loving, crime-loving, graft-loving, excitement-loving man; not man living in the image of God (such as is found in small country towns) but superficial, money-mad, harried, nervous, dyspeptic man who is born a chronic grouch and who dies the death of the embittered. God refused to have anything to do with the making of big cities because he knew in advance of the founders what perverters of happiness, what desecrators of homes they would prove to be, and we all know that God puts his trademark on only the good, the worthy and the idealistic. God made the country and the small country towns because he knew that there would congregate the type of men and women in whom would be found the embodiment of all that is really worth while in life. God wished that there should be a Paradise on earth—so he made small country towns, and in these small towns he saw to it that the finest citizens of the nation were born and reared.

He saw to it that living conditions in small towns were made ideal. He saw to it that only home-loving, community-loving, and characterful men, women and children should populate such places. He saw to it that these people should possess those qualities that go to make life worth living; such qualities as cheerfulness, honesty, sincerity, generosity and human kindness. He saw to it that the dollar, important though it is, was made secondary to the great triumvirate of right, justice and fairness. He knew that the people that He would cause to live in small country towns would have a keen sense of their duties toward their home town, its institutions, both social and business. If God had had His way, He would have fashioned many more small towns than he did, but pushing, grasping, struggling, selfish man carved out wicked cities where true happiness is unknown.

Why is it that the great majority of our men famous in letters, business, statesmanship and philanthropy come from the small country towns. Why is it that every movement involving the national welfare originates in the minds of small-town mental giants? Why is it that health, happiness and prosperity abound in the great majority of small towns? Because—because life in a small town, from the moment one is born is conducive to bringing about these ends. It is simply a matter of cause and effect.

Small towns have been the cradles of human liberty. In them have been given birth men whose influence have shaped the paths of humanity and religion. Within them have been born the men and women who later went out into the struggling, seething world and by pen, sword, tongue and gun changed the entire course of history. The cream of the nation's greatest men have always been found and always will be found in small country towns.

Small-town merchants embody all that is ideal. They place the success, happiness and prosperity of their customers above the almighty dollar. They would rather close shop than sell a poor product at a low profit, they would rather die in shame than short-weight or short-change a customer. Small-town merchants are interested in the town's growth and welfare. They believe that it pays them in personal happiness as well as in dollars to be liberal with credit, generous in contributing to the maintenance of the town's institutions such as schools, churches, play-grounds, recreational centers, parks etc. They have caught the spirit of the Maker and have embodied in themselves all that is right and worthy.
